Rural technical assistance on violence against women

A Grantee Roundtable

Unique, critical-thinking and problem-solving event to dig deeply into challenging issues

When Women Fight Back

February 22 & 23, 2012

Boston, MA

With Mary Asmus, Duluth City Attorney's Office, Marcus Bruning, Saint Louis County Sheriff's Office, Melissa Scaia, Advocates for Family Peace

It's a reality—women who face ongoing abuse sometimes fight back. This roundtable will explore how to work with them in ways that do not embolden their abuser's ability to cause further harm while also addressing their use of violence within the larger context of their victimization. Participants will receive At a Crossroads: Developing Duluth's Prosecution Response to Battered Women Who Fight Back, a manual that details a successful program for victims of battering who have been charged with criminal offenses against their partners.

Approved training: Rural grantees may use their OVW set-aside training funds to cover travel expenses to attend this training and do not need approval from their OVW program manager

No registration fee to attend
