Native Children and Their Mothers Who are Battered: Strategizing Together to Protect Their Rights

June 29 & 30, 2010

Seattle, WA

Facilitators: Sandy Davidson, Praxis International,
Cheryl Coan and Leanne Guy, Southwest Indigenous Women's Coalition.

Tribal advocates frequently wonder whether there is something more we should or could be doing for our children and mothers who are battered. This roundtable will create the time and space for an in-depth discussion with other Tribal advocates, focusing on how to:

- Integrate tribal values into our advocacy
- Enhance programming with balance between the advocacy needs of children and the needs of their mothers
- Identify interventions that focus on our strengths and resilience to survive the abuse
